THE South-
Carolina Gazette.
September 19th, 1754. [NUMB. 1057.]

Copy of a Letter from Col. Innes, to the Governor of Pensylvania, published in Philadelphia, July 25*th.*

Honoured Sir,

HAVING notice of a perſon going to your province immediately, I thought it proper, on this occaſion, to give you a ſhort detail of what hath lately happened.

After having regulated the march, and the tranſportation of the North Carolina regiment, I immediately proceed to Williamſburg, and by my commiſſion from governor Dinwiddie, as commander in chief of this expedition, I ſet out for Winchester, where I arrived the 10th of June, in order to take the command upon me, and to bring up the two New-York independent companies, with thoſe of the North-Carolina regiment then upon their march from Alexandria for this town.

Col. Waſhington, with the Virginia regiment, and Capt. Mackay, with the South Carolina independent company, together did but conſiſt of 400 men, of which a good many were ſick, and out of order.

On the 3d of July, the French, with about 900 men, and a large body of Indians, came down upon our incampment, and continued to fire, from all quarters, from 11 in the morning 'till night, when the French call'd out to our people, they would give 'em good conditions, if they would capitulate, a copy of which I here incloſe you.

After the capitulation, the French demoliſhed the works, and in ſome time after retired to the Ohio, taking two captains as hoſtages along with them. We all know the French are a people that never pay any regard to treaties longer than they find them conſiſtent with their intereſt; and this treaty they broke immediately, by letting the Indians demoliſh and deſtroy every thing our people had, eſpecially the doctor's box, that our wounded ſhould meet with no relief. In this action it is ſaid we had about 100 men killed and wounded, a third whereof ſuppoſed to be killed; and it is reported we killed double the number of the French. If this does not alarm the neighbouring governments, nothing can; and I make no doubt but the French will ſoon claim this fine body of land as their right by conqueſt, if we do not immediately raiſe a ſufficient force to convince them of the contrary. What I can learn of their force, is, that they had 700 men in their firſt diviſion, 800 in the next, and 500 in the laſt, not as yet join'd; which, with their Indians, make a conſiderable body.

Col. Waſhington and Capt. Mackay told me, there were many of our friend Indians along with the French, ſundry of which came up and ſpoke to them, told them they were their brothers, and aſk'd them how they did, particularly, Suſquehanna Jack, and others, who diſtinguiſh'd themſelves by their names; and it is alſo ſaid, that ſome of the Delaware's were there. We had not an Indian to aſſiſt when the engagement commenced or ended.

It is my real opinion, that nothing will ſecure to us the Indians now in our friendſhip, if we allow ourſelves to be baffled by the French; as it is very natural and common for a more polite people than the Indians to ſide with the ſtrongeſt: So that there is a neceſſity either to go into the affair in diſpute heartily at once, or to give it up entirely. I am, Sir,

Winchester, July 12, 1754. Your moſt obedient humble Servant, JAMES INNES.

CAPITULATION

Granted by Monſ. De Villier, captain and commander in chief of the infantry and troops of his moſt Chriſtian majeſty, to thoſe Engliſh troops actually in the fort of Neceſſity, which was built on the lands of the king's dominions; July the 3*d*, 1754, at 8 o'clock at night, viz.

AS our intentions have never been to trouble the peace and good harmony which reigns between the two princes in amity, but only to revenge the aſſaſſination committed on one of our officers, bearer of a citation, as appears by his writing; as alſo to hinder any eſtabliſhment on the lands of the dominions of the king my maſter; upon theſe conſiderations, we are willing to grant protection or favour to all the Engliſh that are in the ſaid fort, on the conditions hereafter mentioned.

ARTICLE I.

WE grant leave to the Engliſh commander to retire with all his gariſon, and to return peaceably into his own country; and promiſe to hinder his receiving any inſult from us French; and to reſtrain, as much as ſhall be in our power, the ſavages that are with us.

II. It ſhall be permitted him to go out, and carry with him all that belongs to them, except the artillery, which we keep.

III. That we will allow them the honours of war, that they march out with drums beating, and a ſwivel gun, being willing to ſhew them that we treat them as friends.

IV. That as ſoon as the articles are ſigned by both parties, the Engliſh colours ſhall be ſtruck.

V. That to morrow, at break of day, a detachment of French ſhall go and make the gariſon file off, and take poſſeſſion of the fort.

VI. As the Engliſh have few oxen or horſes, they are free to hide their effects, and to come again and ſearch for them, when they have a ſufficient number of horſes, &c. to carry them off, and for this end they may have what guards they pleaſe, on condition, that they give their word of honour, not to work upon any buildings in this place, or any part this ſide the mountain, during the ſpace of a year, to commence from this day.

VII. And as the Engliſh have in their power an officer, 2 cadets, and moſt of the priſoners made in the aſſaſſination of the ſieur de Jumonville, they muſt promiſe to ſend them back, with a ſafe guard, to fort du Quesne, ſituated on the Fine river: And for ſurety of their performing this article, as well as the treaty, Mr. Jacob Van Braam, and Robert Stobo, both captains, ſhall be kept as hoſtages 'till the arrival of the Canadians and French abovementioned, we oblige ourſelves on our ſide to give an eſcort to return in ſafety theſe 2 officers, and expecting to have our French in 2 months and an half at fartheſt, a duplicate of this being fixed upon one of the poſts of our blockade the day above named.

CON. VILLIER.

We hear from Boston, that they are about raising 1500 men in that colony, immediately, to join Col. Innes.

Philadelphia, August 29. Last week an express arrived here from Auchwick, with advice, that 300 Indians, men, women and children, were arrived there from the Ohio, being drove off by the French, and had demanded protection and provision from this government; and we hear orders are accordingly sent for their support. It is said 200 more were soon expected at Auchwick, on this side the mountain.

Boston, Sept. 2. Yesterday we had two expresses from the Westward, with the following bad news, viz. That the Indians had taken 8 persons captive at N. 4. in the province of New-Hampshire; and that at Hossack they have killed one man, wounded another, and several other persons were missing. They also burnt all the houses in that town except five that were nearest to the fort.

New-York, Sept. 2. By an express that arrived here last saturday night, from Albany, we learn, that a new settlement called Hossack, about 25 miles N. E. of that place, was burnt to the ground, on wednesday last, by a body of above 300 French and Indians. A few days before, the inhabitants were apprized of the designs of the French against that town, by some friend Indians, which caused several of them to withdraw with their effects, otherwise they must have fallen a prey to those merciless savages (who glory in nothing more than shedding the blood of I may say innocent Englishmen) and undergone the same fate Hans Spulman and Samuel Barns did, who were both kill'd and scalp'd by the Indians. Several men and women were missing when the express came away, and 'twas feared were either killed, or carried away captive to Canada, where, we suppose, they must remain until a sufficient sum can be raised for their redemption, in order to purchase a little slave, for every Englishman carried into captivity.

Extract of a letter from Albany, dated Aug. 28.

"The French Indians that were here about 2 weeks ago, to make peace and open the path, always told the commissioners that there was no danger; that the path was now open and clear; and that this peace was not made for a short time, nor during their lives, but for ever. I reckon every soul to the northward of the Patroon's (a mile from Albany) will be in town to-morrow."

Philadelphia, Sept. 5. By Capt. Hamilton, from London, we have advice, that the hon. Robert Hunter Morris, Esq; was to embark on board the Mermaid man of war for this province, about the 10th of June last, so that he is hourly expected.

New-York, Sept. 9. Last saturday a detachment of 40 men, from his honour the governor's company, posted in this city, embarked on board a sloop for Albany, the better to defend that place in case any hostile attempts should be made upon it, either by the French, or the Indians in their interest.
